Full-Stack Developer | AI Integration | Legacy Modernization

Full-Stack Developer with production experience in international teams and independent software delivery for businesses. University Technician in Programming (UTN). Focused on high-traffic e-commerce backends, Next.js platforms, legacy modernization, and applied AI for business-process automation with security and performance at scale.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Full-Stack Developer

House of CB - Luxury fashion and related brands under the same ownership | February 2026 - Present

- Backend development on House of CB high-traffic international e-commerce (PHP, MySQL, Docker, AWS) in a global team.
- Contributing to a greenfield Next.js 16 rebuild of admin, internal operations, and core commerce domain logic, replacing the legacy House of CB stack.
- Designed and integrated AI solutions and autonomous agents to automate internal workflows on the live House of CB stack; occasional storefront frontend changes when product needs require it.
- Related brands under the same ownership: full-stack PHP 7.2 to 8.5 migration and Smarty modernization for Mistress Rocks; live guest QR ordering with SSE, legacy PHP POS bridge, and brand site for Madame Pompidor.

Founder and Full-Stack Developer

AFM - Independent Software and AI Studio | May 2025 - Present

- End-to-end delivery of production full-stack platforms for clients across travel, meal delivery, architecture studios, and other verticals — web apps, AI integration, and process automation.
- Flagship client: Melincue Viajes — TypeScript monorepo with public site, admin backoffice and API: live flight/hotel/package quotation, ops reporting, and an AI quotation agent on WhatsApp Business Cloud API.
- Also built a reusable Node.js / Next.js dashboard foundation (auth, RBAC, audit, real-time) to accelerate delivery across client engagements, and shipped the AFM studio site.
